MADISON INSTITUTE

Lostitute will be open for the reception of students on Saturday, the 8th of September next. Those wishing to secure places for their daughters or wards are advised to apply early.

Let all who design entering the Institute next session, be present, if at all saible, at the first assembling of the school, Tuesday, September 11, as an ace of a week or two at that time will be felt seriously throughout the session,

Persons wishing to have an interview with the Principal before placing a student in the school would do well to call at the Institute before the opening day. This will insure to the patron the undivided time and attention of the Principal and it will expedite the work of organization. Every absence of the Principal from the school room after 8:30 a. m., September 11, delays the work of classification and organization.

Come then, if possible, for all preliminary arrangements before September 11th. If you do not find it practical, come on the 11th or any day thereafter. bition so as to render it comparatively

On Sune 5, 1900, formal notice was received that Madison Institute had been placed on the list of accredited schools of Wellesley College and Vassar College.
